

Meet Debby Broadus

Tennis Pro YMCA Bethesda- Chevy Chase

Debby is now a resident pro at YMCA Bethesda-Chevy Chase. Debby joined the YMCA Arlington Tennis Center in 2002. As a part-time tennis instructor she has always taken great pride in improving players at different levels to help them reach their potential. Debby has also coached USTA League women teams who have advanced to State and Sectional Championship throughout the Mid-Atlantic Section.

Debby works for the USTA/Maryland District as the Leagues Administrator. Throughout her life Debra has been continually placed in leadership positions: top scholastic honors each grade during high school and college, captain of the school tennis team, President of the Student council in high school, President of the Student Government in college and recently chaired the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority's committee to award then Senator Obama the prestigious Anna Eleanor Roosevelt Medallion of Honor during the sorority's Centennial celebration in July, 2008.

She received her college degree, a Bachelor of Science in Education, at Florida State University of Tallahassee and her MBA in Finance at George Washington University.

Debby is an enthusiastic and intense league tennis player who recently won the mixed doubles Professional Registry Tournament in Hilton Head, South Carolina.

When she is not working, she loves to read, to travel and to learn.

